How different from dreary History, as it was then Dangerous Game of Betrayal, with its totally unmemorable litany of dates, battles, treaties, and Acts of Parliament. In Kiss the Boys Good-bye by Clare Boothe, the action may take place mostly in Westport, Connecticut, but much of it concerns the travails of a director, a producer, and a "matured star" who'd do anything to land the leading part of a Southern Belle for whom the producer wants to try out a fresher feminine face on his Casting Couch. ChiarinaCarnaval,op. But then I would be 5 minutes late. Shall such an artist degrade his power by portraying ugliness-the mere defects of negations and distortions.
